From August 28. to September 4. 1735.

MILAN, May 4.

'TIS assured the Duke of Modena has prevailed upon the King of France to remove the French Troops out of his Territories; and that his Serene Highness is to observe an exact Neutrality.

Legborn, May 5. Two French Ships, on Monday last, came empty to this Port, having before unloaded salt Provision, Artillery, and other Ammunitions, for the Service of the Spaniards, in the Conquest of the Imperial Towns in Tuscany. We learn from Corsica, that a Body of Malecontents had defeated a Detatchment of Genoese Soldiers, taken all their Baggage and made many Prisoners; and that afterwards, they went to block up Bastia, and lay Siege to a small Fort, which the Republick had raised near the Convent of Capuchines.

Mantua, May 7. The French have quitted Bastiglia, and are come in Sight of our Men, which may occasion an Engagement. The Imperialists have abandoned Castiglione, and have formed a Body of 6000 Men near Borgheto in the Neighbourhood of Goito, to oppose the Design which the Allies seem to have of cutting off their Communication with Tirol. The Court of Vienna has resolved to send hither 15,000 Men more, viz. 6000 Croatians, and 7000 regular Troops; the Croatians have surprized some French near Luzara, and conducted 19 of them Prisoners to this City.

Dresden, May 16. Our Troops pursue their March with all possible Diligence that they may arrive in the Imperial Army on the Rhine by the beginning of June. 'Tis said, the Cazarina has signified to the King of Prussia, her desire, that his Prussian Majesty will be pleased to contribute to the Tranquility of Poland, and that he would no longer suffer Stanislaus to enjoy a Retreat at Koningsburg.

LONDON, May 31.

SIR, Landau, May 18. 1735.

'AS I am not Ignorant how far you interest your self in what concerns us, I lose no Time to inform you 'that we arrived here safely Yesterday. The bad Air 'troubled us very much on the Road, having been 'obliged, by the ordinary Lodgings from Saverne, and 'venemous Fevers, which have made surprizing Ha'vock, and continue there, to perfume ourselves with Gar'lick every Morning, and march the rest of the Day 'with our Pipes in our Mouths. We have left a Camp of 'Dragoons near Sarreburg, one of Cavalry under Phals'burg, and another of Infantry near Hagenau. The 'Gross of the Army assembles round about this Place and 'Spire; but as to what we shall do, I will advise you no'thing as yet. We are assured, notwithstanding, that we 'are to pass the Rhine the 25th, in three Columns. This 'cannot well be done, without shedding of Blood, the 'Germans who are possessed of all the advantageous Posts 'on the other Side, being very numerous, and intrench'ed as high as their Teeth; so that we must absolutely 'force them in order to subsist our Cavalry. Hence it 'may be concluded, there will be sharp Doings at the 'Passage of this River. It is their Advantage to defend 'themselves well, as it is ours to attack well. All is in 'Motion this Way, and Troops arrive continually. This 'Disposition prepares us a great Event, of which we will 'speak more at length in proper Time and Place; in a few 'Days you shall hear further from me;

I am,
&c. Yours.

Thanne, May 15. 1735.

'OUR Country is quite full of Troops, who descend 'mostly towards Strasburg, except a Camp of '8000 Men, which will remain in and about Ingersheim. 'The Militia of this Country, that is to say, the Burgesses 'of the Corporations, have received Orders to be in rea'dines to depart, in order to guard the Rhine. They are 'all armed with Muskets, Powder, and Ball, at the Ex'pence of the said Corporations. The Enemy have 'brought several Boats from Fribourg to old Brisack. 'These Boats occasion some Terror in this Country. Seve'ral Villages on the Banks of the Rhine, have sheltered 'their Effects in the neighbouring Towns. The Enemy 'threaten us, but our Troops and Burgesses are not asleep. '100,000 Sacks of Flower are actually passing from Belfort 'to Colmer and new Brisack. All is in Motion in this 'Country.

I am,
&c. Yours

Nancy, May 22. 1735.

'PRINCE de Conty passed here Yesterday, and de'clared he could not stay a Night at Luneville, be'cause he would absolutely arrive at the Army the 24th, 'to be present at the Passage of the Rhine the 25th [which 'confirms the above Letter from Landau]. I passed Saturday 'at Luneville, and saw there a Letter from Bronxalles near 'Philipsburg, that gave an Account of Prince Eugene's 'Arrival at Heidleberg, the 11th at Night. We had here 'at once 4 Battalions of the French Guards in Garrison, 'who ought to arrive by this at Landau, as will the rest 'of the King's Houshold, who passed near this. I obser'ved that the Number of other Troops that passed thro' 'this Country this Year, exceed by much those that did 'last Year.

'The bringing of vast Quantities of Sacks of Wheat 'from Champeign, and several other Parts of this Coun'try, to the Magazines here, continue; as also sending 'off the said Quantities as fast as they are received, by 'two different Routs, for Alsace. It is hardly possible to 'believe the Number of Voiturers, or Carts, that arrive and 'go off daily, and this will continue to the 24th of next 'Month; so that by that Time, it is computed, there will

‘ be this Year above 600,000 Sacks of Wheat ‘ paſſed Nancy for the Army of the Rhine; ‘ for it is from Metz that that of the Moxelle ‘ is furniſhed. This vaſt Proviſion denotes a ‘ Continuation of the War on that Side ----- ‘ I don't enter into what goes from Franche ‘ Comte and Burgundy, into Alſace, by Bel- ‘ fort.

‘ I have nothing new from the Mozelle; ‘ the Detachment M. de Belliſle ſent to exact ‘ Contributions, came back with about 100 ‘ Priſoners. There is no Place on that Side ‘ inveſted yet in Form.

Amſterdam, May 13. N S. Private Letters from Lisbon intimate, that his Portugueze Majeſty had offer'd to confer the Command of his Army on a certain foreign Miniſter reſiding at Lisbon, who had accordingly wrote to his Court for Leave to accept the ſame.

And that the Emperor had agreed to ſend 900 experienced Land Officers into the Portugueze Service.

From the Camp at Bruſchal, May 26. Prince Eugene by the laſt Accounts from the Rhine, was decamp'd from Bruſchal, and in full March towards Mentz, where 'tis ſaid he will paſs the Rhine, march up to the Enemy, and give them Battle; and as the French are drawn together in a Body at Openheim near Mentz, a bloody Battle is expected.

Hague, May 27. N. S. The famous Naphtali Ganzo, who acted the Part of Ambaſſador from the Grand Senior at Warſaw, at the firſt breaking out of the Troubles in Poland, has been ſeized as a Spy in the Service of a certain Power, with all his Papers, and the magnificent Preſents of Saxon Porcelain he was entruſted with for the Grand Seignor. He is a Jew of Amſterdam.

Paris, June 9. Letters from Italy mention an Inſtance of great Honour and Politeneſs in the Commander of the Spaniſh Troops that beſieged Fort Ercole. The German General was a brave Fellow, and determined to hold out the Place to the laſt Moment; but Proviſions beginning to grow ſcarce, and ſome other Inconveniencies prevailing, the Garriſon mutiny'd and obliged the Governor to ſurrenner at Diſcretion: Accordingly the Spaniſh Troops took Poſſeſſion of it, and made every one Priſoners; but the General being informed by the Governor, of the Affair of the Mutiny, he ordered 8 or 10 of the Ringleaders to be hanged up immediately, and offer'd the Governor any Conditions for himſelf that he had a Mind to.

The King of France has demanded a free Gift of Twenty Millions of his Clergy, for the Service of the preſent Campaign.

LONDON, May 29.

Her Majeſty was pleaſed on Tueſday to ſend Orders to all the Officers that have their Regiments in Ireland Scotland, &c. to repair to their reſpective Poſts, Forts, Garriſon, &c. in a Fortnight.

June 21 The Drapers Company have, purſuant to the Will of Thomas Bancroff, Eſq; who lies interred in great St. Helens Church, purchaſed a Piece of Ground at Mile-End, adjoining to the Jews Burying-Ground, for the building of Alms-Houſes for the Maintenance of a certain Number of infirm and decayed Men and Women belonging to the ſaid Company, towards which he has left an handſome Sum of Money, to endow it for ever; which Building will be compleated as ſoon as poſſible.

On Friday laſt died in a very advanced Age, at his Houſe at Colcheſter, Mr. Flemming, formerly an eminent Italian Merchant of this City, reputed to have died worth upwards of 30,000 l.

June 3. Yeſterday at Noon there was a great Appearance of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at the Drawing Room at Kenſington, when ſeveral Foreign Miniſters took Leave of her Majeſty, being on the Point of ſetting out to Hanover.

The ſame Morning Mr. Robinſon, a Farmer in Eſſex, coming to Town, was flung from his Horſe in Whitechapel, diſlocated his Collar Bone, and died on the Spot.

We hear that a Fleet of 12 Men of War of the Line of Battle, to be commanded by Rear Admiral Stuart, will ſoon ſail for Lisbon, to join Sir John Norris.

June 7. The French Miniſters at Madrid and Lisbon continue indefatigable to make up the Differences between thoſe Courts, but do not ſeem to have made as yet any Progreſs; and as neither the one nor the other can be prevail'd with to make the firſt Advance, an Expedient has been propos'd for both to begin on the ſame Day, with ſetting at Liberty the Domeſticks of each other's Ambaſſador. However, their Troops are ſtill aſſembling on the Frontiers, and making Preparations for Action; but as the Superiority of Spain over Portugal lies in her Navy, and it will not be now in her Power to bombard Lisbon as ſhe threatned, or to ſeize the Brazil Fleet, 'tis thought the Affair will be kept in Suſpence till another Year. Spain is in no Condition to attack Portugal by Land, having few Forces better than Militia, and a very powerful Faction for the Prince of Auſturias, in Oppoſition to the Queen's Adminiſtration,

People are generally greatly pleaſed with the Fleet's putting to Sea, and the Seamen in particular, who deſire nothing more than an Opportunity to revenge themſelves on the Spaniards, for the vile Uſage they have met with from them; and as they are arm'd for Land, as well as for Sea-Service, and reſolute as they are ſhould a Rupture happen, they may perhaps plague them ſufficiently.

Paſſengers from Holland aſſure us, that the States-General are about to augment their Troops, and are now more inclin'd to aſſiſt the Emperor for their own Security, and the Ballance of Power in Europe, than heretofore.

'Tis

'Tis talk'd that the Breſt Squadron will join that of Spain at Cadiz, which, if ſo, 'tis agreed on all Hands, that both, when united, are not a Match for ours, the French having few Ships, and the Spaniards wanting Seamen.

According to Advices by a Holland Mail Yeſterday, the Affairs of Poland are in ſuch a Situation, by almoſt the whole Crown-Army having ſubmitted to King Auguſtus, that all King Staniſlaus's Hopes are fruſtrated, as appears by a Manifeſto done at Koningsberg the 11th Inſtant, wherein he obſerves among other Things,

That the Army he had rais'd at ſo great an Expence, had ſerv'd only to ruin the Country, inſtead of defending it; and as he could by no Means approve of ſuch Conduct, and might be anſwerable for the Groans and Tears of ſo many People, his Intention was, to prevent further Ruin, that the Troops ſhould lay down their Arms, and return to their Habitations.

There is ſome Talk of King Staniſlaus returning to Chambord in France, ſeeing there is now no Proſpect of the French's penetrating into Saxony; and they tell us from Warſaw, that, at the Requeſt of ſome of the Deputies from the Palatinates, King Auguſtus, as his Affairs now ſtand, has promiſed that moſt, or all the Ruſſian Troops ſhall quit Poland.

The Court of France has ſent Orders to all the Ports to equip the Fleet in Haſte, and to lay an Embargo on all Ships that can carry 20 Guns.

By a private Letter from Paris we learn that a Body of 12,000 Foot now in the Provinces of Campaign and Normandy are ordered to repair to the Frontiers of Flanders in a ſhort Time.

The new Levies for augmenting the Land Forces are now almoſt compleat, the Savoy being full of them; and the Preſs for Seamen out of all the homeward bound Ships continues.

People talk of ſome Menaces by the Ambaſſadors of France and Spain on Account of the Britiſh Fleet's being gone for Lisbon; but as Affairs now ſtand, 'tis judg'd they'l be but little minded, it being certainly the Intereſt of the Nation to ſupport a Kingdom with which we may have more Trade, than all the other Nations put together.

The Portugal Envoy at an Audience of the Queen laſt Thurſday, deliver'd Letters wrote by the King of Portugal's own Hand, to thank His Majeſty for the Reſolution he had taken of ſending a Fleet to Portugal; and to aſſure him that the Obligation for it ſhall never be forgotten by him or his People.

They write from Holland, that the Prince of Orange has remov'd the Objection His Majeſty had to his ſerving this Campaign on the Rhine, and that he has declar'd his Intention of going thither: And that his Conſort is certainly with Child.

Paris, June 9. Our Army in Germany, which is 100,000 Men ſtrong, ſeems to bend towards Worms and Mentz.

Boſton, Aug. 4. We hear that a Diſtemper prevails very much in ſeveral Towns in the Province of New-Hamſhire, which proves very mortal; in a few Days, and ſometimes in a few Hours, it carries off many that are ſeiz'd by it, eſpecially thoſe that are Young. It's ſaid, that at Kingſton, above 50 Perſons have died in leſs than a Month: And one luſty young Man 'tis ſaid died ſtanding, not being able to ſit or ly down by Reaſon of the extream Anguiſh he was in: This Diſtemper begins with a ſwelling in the Throat, much like a Quinſy.

We hear from divers Parts of the Country, that the late great Rains have ſpoil'd abundance of Hay, and roſe the Floods ſo high that vaſt Tracts of Meadowing are quite overflow'd.

We hear from Rehoboth, that on the 14th of July paſt, the Rev. Mr. David Turner of that Place joined in Marriage, Mr. Samſon Maſon, a Batchellor in the 85th Year of his Age, to Mrs. Abigail Farriſs, a Widow of about 45 Years old, both belonging there: She had then a ſucking Child, upwards of three Years old; which 'tis thought ſhe muſt wean upon this Occaſion. The Wedding was attended by a great Number of Gentry and a vaſt Number of young People of both Sexes belonging to that Place, who were very handſomely entertain'd; and all the Ceremonies were performed that are uſual at ſuch a Time.

New-York, Sept. 1. On Monday Morning laſt a Bilinder arrived here, from Faro in Portugal, but laſt from So-Carolina, where ſhe touched; the Day before ſhe left the laſt Place, a Ship arrived there from Briſtol, with News that Mr. Oglethorpe was to have that Government, and that Sir Robert Walpole had made publick his Letters Patent whereby he is created Duke of Northumberland.

They daily expect Capt. Foſter at Boſton from London, ſhe was to ſail about the 20th of June.

To Morrow his Excellency our Governor ſets out for Albany to meet the ſeveral Nations of Indians, and to viſit our Frontiers.

The King of Portugal's Preſent of Refreſhments to Admiral Norris was, 20 Pipes of Wine, 60 Oxen, 400 Sheep, 400 Hams, 400 Geeſe, 400 Ducks, 400 Turkeys, 50 Arrova's of preſerved Sweet Meats, 200 Baskets of all Sorts of Greens, 100,000 Lemons and Oranges. He forgot Arrack to the laſt Article.
